The best course for the association to pursue is to hold a constant executive session till their fraternity have recovered possession of their libertias. This executive committee should prepare for individual dealers a proper form of application for a license, and this form, ignoring the Commissioners' form of application, should merely contain the name and residence of the applicant, and rectite his naked demand for license, under the law as passed by the Legislature, and not under the Commissioners' law. And we herewith advise that every voter is of "good moral character" in the eye of the law, and may not be refused—unless to all the beverages specified in the law, and the applicate being refused, should report, with his witness to the Excusive Committee.
